RE: Reinstatement
FEI # 65-1062035

Gentlemen:

With reference to your letter dated 11/6/2001, copy of which is hereto attached, we wish to state as follows:

We had mailed our Annual Report (hereto attached) the first time in April 2001 in order for same to be filed on time, together with our check for $150., which you have kept. While our FEI was missing from it, however we did not hear from you, the Department of State, for a long time concerning the omission. Precisely, it was until October 2001 that we heard about it the first time. Consequently, on October 18, 2001 we made the necessary correction and mailed back to your office the Annual Report in question.

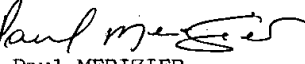

In November 2001 we received a second letter (copy of which is hereto attached), asking us to pay an additional $600. reinstatement fee.

It really was not our fault if the correspondence on the subject was held up in your office between April and October 2001 (Way past the dead line to resubmit the Annual Report. We have been unfairly penalized because of the Department's delay in handling the matter. We really do not deserve to be on the DISSOLUTION/REVOCATION list.

In the name of JUSTICE we are humbly asking you to reverse the $600. reinstatement fee and simply reinstate our Corporation, using the original check of $150. (still in your possession) to cover the fee.

We hope to have clearly stated our case. We are looking forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience with the confirmation of our reinstatement.

Thanks in advance for all considerations

Very truly yours
P & J AUTO SALES CORP.

Paul MERIZIER
President
