Attn: Division of Corporations;

I am writing to let you know that my company has been inactive for over a year now and my previous P.O. Box in Florida has been closed as well. Unfortunately one would assume that my accountant would notify me of time of renewal so I can meet the dead-line but that wasn't my case, and never received any renewal form from you or him I am sending you $158.75 and please take this under consideration —

I am assuming that this will make me current for the year. It has been very difficult doing business under very hard economic times. I am hoping to do better this year.

Best regards

Martin Robles
