To Whom It May Concern;

I respectfully submit this letter and ask for leniency in this matter.

This year, at the post office, after not receiving mail in the box for some time, I inquired at the desk and was told the box was closed for nonpayment. In fact, it had been paid promptly, but not entered into the computer system.

I was told the man who corrected the problem was the only person that could look it up and write the letter which I am enclosing. My registered agent is supposed to take care of these things for me, and I had no idea he hadn't taken care of my Incorporation Papers and payment until I received them in the mail this month. My box was closed for several months and I was not aware of it. Thus I did not receive my Incorporation Papers and pay it promptly.

I called the Florida Department of State Division of Corporations and spoke to someone there that said "write a letter and explain the situation, get a note from the post office (enclosed), and send the $150.00 check".

I would appreciate your kindness in this matter. It is an honest mistake due to post office error and my lack of attention.

Sincerely,

Mead L. Buckley

To whom it may concern;

I am writing in reference to the Post Office Box that Mead Buckley rents at this Post Office. Due to a clerical error in our Post Office, Mead Buckley's box was closed in January. We inadvertently posted his rent to another box customer. He brought in his receipt, and we reopened the box. Unfortunately, all mail received in January through March of 2002 was returned to sender.

Please accept our apologies for the inconvenience that our mistake has caused for both Mr. Buckley and for your agency.

Sincerely,

Beth Jones
