To Whom It May Concern:

For some reason we did not receive our last yearly corporation renewal form. Even though we moved from 214 N. Federal Hwy, we had forwarding paperwork with the post office. I only knew that we did not file because I went to apply for an occupational license for a new store we are opening. I just had a conversation with your office and the told me that you received our form back from the post office. I am sending you a check for $300 like I was just informed with this letter and application. As you can see from the last couple of years of filing, we have never had a problem with this. I know that I should have contacted your office when I did not receive it but I just lost track of it. This seems to be a problem with the post office and the new tenant at 214 N. Federal Hwy, whom should have returned it to you. I am more than willing to pay the yearly fee but ask you not to charge us any penalties. If you have any questions, you can contact me at (786)286-3876 Cellular.

Sincerely,

Daniel Stein
President
Cellular Warehouse Inc.
