I must apologize for this letter coming so late. Being new to the business there is a lot that I need to learn. As you can see many things seem to slip thru the cracks.

I am in the mist of changing business addresses and I have had a family tragedy that has taken my mind off the working of this business and its important paperwork.

I cannot guarantee this won't happen again but I am giving this my full attention that your business services will not be neglected in the future.

Once again my sincere apologies

Walter Kahan
