To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in reference to the Uniform Business Report for year 2001. We had received this report to file at the home address of one of our employees and not the primary place of business. Because the report was mailed to this location we were not able to know that we had to file this report until the due date had passed.

We now received another notice to file. This one states that we must pay the filing fee plus a late fee. I am not aware if we are to pay both the late fee and the filing fee. At this time I am sending the filing fee for $150.00. If we do need to pay the late fee, please let us know as soon as possible and we will mail a check for the remaining amount.

Sincerely,

Mustafa Ameenuddin
President, Next Generation Computer Training, Inc.
