To Whom it May Concern:

I have several problems going on that I am hoping you can help me with. I am new in business this year and just became incorporated in May of 2000. I really didn't understand this whole incorporation thing and my accountant has now promised to spend more time with me.

I have been ill these past couple of months with my gall bladder. My father put all my mail in a box. My accountant extended my tax deadline until June 15th. So when I pulled out the notice yesterday and asked what this was he said, "Oh, No, you were supposed to pay this by May 1st." He said he had thought about reminding me but didn't get a chance. He then told me to write a letter telling you what has been going on and enclose my check for $150 and ask for you to excuse me.

I am hoping you will help me in this first year and at this time.

Thanks for your time.

Sincerely Yours,

Laura A. Cohen, PhD
