I have received your letter asking me to pay $550 for a business report. It took several phone calls and a search to receive the application for the annual report. Finally it came on July 1, 06 and I sent in $150.

Since I am semi retired, my corportation is not active. I've had this company for 45 years. I'm holding on to the corpor^{at}ion for sentimental reasons.

If I had received the application on time, I never would be late. I moved and I want you to have my new address. I won't let this happen again. Again, I'm sorry and I hope you understand.

Sincerely,

Bernard Kaszovitz

To Whom It May Concern,

I will try to clarify my problem. This past year I moved 3 times. Now you have my permanent address. You asked for the annual profit business report. I did not do any work so there is no profit. As I said in the accompanying letter, I have been holding on to the corporation for 45 years and it is part of me--even if I'm not working.

Please send me the application for 2007 so this will not happen again.

I hope now you understand--no profit so no annual report.

Sincerely,

Bernard Kaszovitz
