To Whom It May Concern:

I received this package in the mail yesterday 7/1/03 and to my surprise the renewal charge is a lot more then it was last year. I am hoping this is in error and the renewal charge is still $150.00. I have enclosed said amount, if this is incorrect please contact me at 407 252 6006 and you can listen to a grown man cry.

In hopes I am correct in this matter, I will not here from you and I can sleep better at night. Thank you for your help and please try to get some pleasure from your tough days.

Sincerely

Robert A Billingsley

To whom it may concern

After looking high and low and also checking with my administrator and accountant we were not able to find the first notice of renewal. This notice is the first and only notice we received. I did submit payment in full days later of my first notice, back on 7/2/03 check Number # 2567 for $150.00 [one hundred and fifty dollars] what I am asking is a waiver of any late fee, on the grounds of not getting a notice at a earlier time.

Mr. B's INCORPORATED has also taking steps for the future to assure this renewal fee is paid ahead of time as we can see the late charge is nothing to laugh at. Thank for your attention on in this matter.

With Appreciation

President

Mr. Tyrone Scott

Has per our conversation here is my third letter to the division of corporations. As you can see from the other letters I did not receive the first notice for the renewal. I have sent in my $150.00 [one hundred and fifty dollars] which you have cashed, back in July. On the grounds of not getting said notice, I would like to get the penalty waived, thank you for your attention to this matter. I have enclosed both of my previous letters regarding this matter. Again thank you for your time.

Sincerely

Robert A Billingsley
