Statutes. The secretary of the corporation shall endorse the following legend on each share certificate prior to its delivery to a shareholder:

"The shares of stock evidenced by this certificate may not be transferred, pledged, gifted, assigned, or encumbered except in accordance with the terms of the Articles of Incorporation of La Bolear, Inc., a copy of which is on deposit with the President of the corporation."

No shareholder shall transfer, pledge, assign, gift, or encumber all or any part of her shareholdings in the corporation except as provided in this Article. This restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares shall be to maintain the corporation's status because it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders, including but not limited to preserving exemptions under the Internal Revenue Service laws as well as the close management relation between the founders of the corporation proper to protect the corporation against outside control, in accordance with Chapter 607.0627, Florida Statutes.

This Article obligates any shareholder of the corporation or said shareholder's executor or other legal representative whom is desirous to dispose in any form, including and not limited to whether by sale, transfer, assignment, gift or bequest, any share or fraction of share thereof to first offer to the corporation an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares. Should the corporation decline on this right of first refusal herein granted, any shareholder of the corporation or said shareholder's executor or other legal representative whom is desirous to dispose in any form, including and not limited to whether by sale, transfer, assignment, gift or bequest, any share or fraction of share thereof to first offer separately, and consecutively to each other shareholder of the corporation in order of majority of shares held by such shareholder an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares, in accordance with Chapter 607.0627, Florida Statutes.

A retiring shareholder shall offer said shareholder's shares to the remaining shareholders in proportion to their respective holdings. If the remaining shareholders do not elect to buy their shares, any of the other shareholders may do so.

On the death of any shareholder, the corporation has the first option to buy, and the executor, administrator, or personal representative of the shareholder will sell to the corporation, all of the shares owned by the shareholder at the time of said shareholder's death at a reasonable book value price fixed by the corporation's directors if there is no outside market.

The directors may waive any requirement that shares be offered to the corporation before sale, and a majority shareholder may vote her shares to prevent the corporation from making a purchase of shares under this Article.
