ARTICLE V

Informal Shareholder Action

The holders of not less than a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of all classes of stock entitled to vote may act by written agreement without a meeting, as provided in Florida Statutes 607.394 and the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI

Fundamental Changes

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of all classes of stock entitled to vote shall be necessary for the following corporate action:

- a. Amendment, alteration, change or repeal of any provision of the Articles of Incorporation;
- b. Reorganization, merger or consolidation of the corporation;
- c. Sale, lease or exchange of the major portion of the property or assets of the corporation;
- d. Dissolution of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII

Directors

A. The business of the corporation shall be managed initially by a board of three (3). The number of directors may be, as provided in the Bylaws, increased or decreased, but shall never be less than one (1) director.

B. The entire Board of Directors, or any individual director, may be removed from office with or without assignment of cause by affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of all classes of stock entitled to vote

C. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors shall be filled by the shareholders at a regular or special meeting called for that purpose. A shareholder removed as a director for cause shall not be entitled to vote to fill his own vacancy by voting for himself without prior approval secured by the affirmative vote of 100% of the outstanding shares of all classes of stock entitled to vote, exclusive of his own shares of stock.

D. Members of the Board of Directors or an Executive Committee shall be deemed present at a meeting if a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other is used.

ARTICLE VIII

Long Term Employment Contract

The Board of Directors may authorize the corporation to enter into employment contracts with any executive officer for periods longer than one year, and any charter or Bylaw provision for annual election shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the executive officer under such contracts.

ARTICLE IX

Pre-Emptive Rights

Any shareholder of this corporation shall have the first right to purchase shares (and securities convertible into shares) of any class, kind or series of stock in this corporation that may from time to time be issued (whether or not presently authorized), including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding exclusive of treasury shares. This right shall be deemed waived by any shareholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares pre-empted within thirty (30) days of receipt of a notice in writing from the corporation stating the prices, terms and conditions of the issue of shares and inviting him to exercise his pre-emptive rights. This right may also be waived by affirmative written waiver submitted by the shareholder to the corporation within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from the corporation.

ARTICLE X

Effective Date

The date that corporate existence shall begin shall be May 5, 2000. This election is pursuant to Florida Statute 607.167.
