Dear Katherine Harris,

I feel uncomfortable writing this letter. The subject of money is always an awkward one—especially when you know that you are wrong. I received your notice of uniform fee about the time when we were moving and did not have enough money to sent it off to you. Needless to say I filed (probably packed) the form and never gave it another thought until you sent me another one. We are in the "off season" of our business right now so I am not much better off then before I am enclosing the fee of $150 and am sincerely requesting that the late fees be waived.

I value our business and don't want it to be tarnished by an outstanding debt. If at all possible, would you please notify me of your decision as soon as possible?

Thank-you for your time and consideration in reading this letter.

My new address is;

16 E Bay Blvd N
