FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
Miami, May 10, 2002

Dear Sir:

The purpose of this letter is to require of the Division of Corporations some consideration in reference to the due fees required for a late filing of the Uniform Business Report ( year 2002 ).

Here, in our small business, we are trying to get things done in these difficult times in the country and in the State of Florida.

Two of the Directors of the company live in Argentina, country involved in a very serious economical and political situation and were unable to travel to United States during the last months.

This created a complicated situation dealing with the business and contributed with the payment delay.

This late fee is a big amount of money for us and is going to create a considerable damage to the finances of our company.

We expect your comprehension of this matter voiding this charge or making a reasonable deduction since the delinquency was totally involuntary.

We will really appreciate a favorable resolution of this issue.

Best Regards,

Raul G. Medei
Vice President
