To Whom It May Concern,

About April 21, 2002 I mailed the UBR for last year along with payment. For some reason, unknown to me, you did not receive. Since Florida courts consider legal papers sent by first class mail as being sent and received, I thought the same would hold true for the UBR. I suppose since you never received mine, that you do not feel the same. I am including along with this letter, a check for $150.00, for the filing fee. I offer no excuse other then USPS mailings are not always delivered. I am sending this payment by UPS because they DO offer a guarantee of delivery. I will do this in the future to ensure proper payment.
