To Whom It May Concern:

We are writing to you concerning a notice that we received from your office regarding our Annual Report. According to our records we send our Annual Report back in February 28, 2001, attached find copy of report and check. We do not know what happened with our report, it was a surprise for us to find out that you have no record of our report being filed. We are sending you a replacement check with a copy of the report and the check original filed. If you find our original report and original check (#0150) please void the check, since we already void it out in our books. If you need further information regarding this matter, please do not besitate to contact us at your earliest convenience.
