Dear Sir or Madam:

Our new accountant just informed us that we had to file the 2001 Uniform Business Report with your office and send a filing fee of $150 for our new corporation. Unfortunately, we have moved from our original location and did not receive the filing form from your office. We are attaching a completed form and a filing fee check for $150. Please excuse the confusion and waive the late filing fee.

Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Javier Cano,
President
