UBR 2001

To Whom It May Concern:

With this letter I would like to request for the penalty fee be waived for the above-mentioned corporation.

Originally the UBR 2001 was sent with check #1145 for $150.00, unfortunately that check bounced. Immediately I decided to send a money order to cover the check that had bounced. This was done before anyone from your department informed us.

On June 26, 2001 we received a letter returning our money order and stating that our UBR 2001 was already on file (enclosed letter and printout verification).

I decided to call and confirm that this was correct, I asked why the money order was returned and I was informed that the check would be redeposit.

Now I have received the notice of administrative dissolution or revocation, much to my surprises I realized that my company had been dissolved.

After checking to see if the check was once again returned I found that it wasn't returned and I don't think that it was even presented.

Enclosed please find the reinstatement and a money order in the amount of $150.00.

If by any chance the original check is still on file, please disregard that check and cash the money order.

Thank you for your cooperation.
