Re: Nuvation Construction Corporation
Uniform Business Report for 2000
Document # P00000056848

Gentlemen:

My client, Mr. Jim Flanders, Secretary of Nuvation Construction Corporation, has asked me to respond to your second notice for filing the 2001 Uniform Business Report for the above named corporation.

Your second notice obviously indicates that you do not have any record of a report being filed for 2001. After double checking my files and the records for Nuvation, we agree with you that the report has not been filed. My files do not indicate that I received the report form from Mr. Flanders for review and completion for his signature. Mr. Flanders does not remember receiving the report booklet at all, and if he had, he would have immediately sent it to me along with other such forms which he receives on a regular basis (such as payroll reporting forms, etc.)

Enclosed is the completed report for 2001. Also enclosed is Nuvation's check for $150.00, the amount due if he could have filed by May 1, 2001. We respectfully request that the late filing fee be waived as we do not believe Nuvation ever received the original form.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. If you should have need any additional information, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

Richard M. Corbett, C.P.A.
