To whom it concerns,

I Ms. Alice Brooks Cesarin would like to request a waiver of the $550.00 fee: the reason being, my lack of knowledge of owing the initial $150.00 fee. I would like to take this time to express my apology for this mishap. However, if I been aware of this financial debt I would have given it my prompt attention, much sooner than to day.

Given that position, I can only hope that the State will do all it can to assist a person of very little means to stay in business. To this day, I have not made any money. Instead, I've incurred debt trying to become the ruler of my financial destiny.

I am not experienced in this quest of mine; to own and operate my business: this is my first attempt at such a venture. I do not have the finance to hire an attorney or any other consultant, I am all that there is concerning this corporation.

With this plea, I can only hope that one may know that I did not receive the firs notice, and act accordingly. I only received the booklet and was confused by its request for such a large sum of money

Respectfully,

Alice B. Cesarin
