Dear Sirs,

We are in receipt of your letter dated July 26, 2001 stating that you did receive the 2001 UBR but did not file it because it was filed late, and that it should have included the federal identification number. You also requested a late filing fee of $400.00.

We are returning the copy of the form you returned to us with the federal identification number (65-1014079) included.

Please be advised that we did file the first UBR – 2001 you sent, on 1/5/2001 with our check #428 for $150.00. We were therefore surprised when we received a new form with the request that we file it by September 12, 2001 or we would have to pay the penalty of $400.00. On June 29, 2001 we again filed the form only to receive your letter referred to above.

Under the circumstances we don't see that we were negligent, and so ask that you cancel the penalty.

Thanking you,
Yours truly,

Alfred R. Wilson - Accountant
