Dear Representatives:

This has been our first year in business with both companies and we were not aware of the deadline to file the 2001 Uniform Business Report as of May 1, 2001. We only realized that these reports were late when we sent them, along with other documents, to our accountant.

We are requesting that you kindly consider our inexperience with this matter and wave the penalties our companies have incurred. We will be immensely grateful if you accept the $150.00 fee for each company. Since we are now aware of the deadline, we can assure you that future reports will be timely filed.

Your consideration of this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
