Before there can be a valid sale or transfer of any of the common shares of the corporation by any holder thereof, such holder shall first offer said shares to the corporation and then to the other holders of common shares in the following manner:

- (1) Such offering shareholder shall deliver a notice in writing by mail or otherwise to the secretary of the corporation stating the price, terms and conditions of such proposed sale or transfer, the number of shares to be sold or transferred, and his intent to sell or transfer such shares. Within eight (8) days thereafter, the corporation shall have the prior right to purchase such shares so offered at the price and on the terms and conditions stated in the notice; provided, however, that the corporation shall not at any time be permitted to purchase all of its out-standing voting shares. Should the corporation fail to purchase the shares at the expiration of the eight (8) day period, or prior thereto decline to purchase the shares, the secretary of the corporation shall, within five (5) days thereafter, mail or deliver to each of the common shareholders of record a copy of the notice given by the shareholder to the secretary. Such notice may be delivered to the shareholders personally, or may be mailed to them at their last known address, as such address may appear on the books of the corporation. Within eight (8) days after the mailing or delivering of the copies of the notice, any such shareholder or shareholders desiring to acquire any part or all of the shares referred to in the notice shall deliver by mail, or otherwise, to the secretary of the corporation a written offer or offers, expressed to be acceptable immediately, to purchase a specified number of such shares at the price and on the terms stated in the notice. Each such offer shall be accompanied by the purchase price thereof with authorization to pay such price against delivery of the shares.

- (2) If the total number of shares specified in the offers to purchase exceeds the number of shares to be sold or transferred, each offering shareholder shall be entitled to purchase such proportion to such shares as the number of the shares of the corporation which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all shareholders desiring to purchase the shares.
- (3) If all the shares to be sold or transferred are not disposed of under such apportionment, each shareholder desiring to purchase shares in a number in excess of his proportionate share, as provided above, shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of those shares which remain thus undisposed of, as the total number of shares which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all of the shareholders desiring to purchase shares in excess of those to which they are entitled under such apportionment.
- (4) If within said eight (8) day period, the offer or offers to purchase aggregate less than the number of shares to be sold or transferred, the shareholder desiring to sell or transfer such shares shall not be obligated to accept any such offer or offers and may dispose of all of the shares referred to in the notice to any person or persons whomsoever; provided, however, that they shall not sell or transfer such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in the notice to the secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE XVI

No contract or other transaction between this corporation and one or more of its directors or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of the directors are directors or officers, or are financially interested shall be either void or voidable because of that relationship or interest, or because that director or those directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee that authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction or because his, her or their votes are counted for that purpose, if:

- (1) The fact of that relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee that authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of the Shareholders; or
- (2) The fact of that relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Stockholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify the contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or
- (3) The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is authorized by the board, committee or the Stockholders.

The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director, to the full extent permitted by law.
