Attention: Leslie

This is to follow-up our phone conversation of October 18, 2001. You may recall from our conversation that when the dissolution notice arrived I was going out of state to get married. You assured me that I could overlook this notice until I returned hence the two-week delay since our conversation until now.

The notice of dissolution was the first thing from your office that came to me. It had been sent to the wrong address but did get forwarded to us. Apparently, anything you sent previously was lost. The address used was the place of business. No mail is delivered or received at that location. Please change your records so that all future mailings are sent to the correct mailing address:

A.M. Concrete Pumps & Parts, Inc.
P.O. Box 607460
Orlando, FL 32860-7460

You told me to write a letter of explanation and to submit the application with a check for the $150 fee, ignoring the penalty. This is the letter; the application and check are enclosed. Also enclosed for your reference is a photocopy of the front of the mailing, which was misaddressed, over which the Post Office put the forwarding label.

If you have questions or need additional information you can reach me by phone during the day at 407-466-6451 or by mail at the above mailing address.

Thank you for your help and understanding.

Sincerely,

Roger A. Anderson
