To Whom It May Concern:

I have recently relocated several times due to my wife's education and relocation to her new job. I have not received my renewal letter for my corporation. I mistakenly believed that my accountant had filed my corporation renewal and he believed that I had taken care of this matter. On either account, it was not renewed.

I hope you will take this into account. This was a grave error on my part and it is difficult to remember when one has had to relocate as many times as I have recently. Now that my wife's education is complete and we are settled in our new home I do not anticipate this occurring again.

Please may I request the $600.00 reinstatement fee to be waived and then may I pay the $150.00 per year for $450.00. I will renew my cooperation as required with the state regularly from this moment forward.
