Re: Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation

To Whom It May Concern:

Today, on October 15, 2001, I received a notice to reinstate the corporation "The Doll Collection, Inc." with the State of Florida. I never received a notice pertaining to the corporation, or to the fact that I needed to fill out any type of reinstatement form. As you may know, this is the first year my corporation has been in existence, and I am still very unfamiliar with the regular routine activities of the corporation.

After reading the "Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation", I called my accountant and found out that it is common procedure to do this filing annually. Please note that I live in an apartment complex with 88 other units. In the past, mix-ups with the mail has occurred where in fact the mail was sent, but was accidentally misplaced in another residents' mailbox, or simply not returned by those who may have found my mail in their mailbox.

So I beg of you to not Administratively Dissolve my Corporation, and to please notify me on how I can reinstate my corporation without paying the penalty fees since I was not aware of such filings.

Sincerely,

Maggie Basto,
The Doll Collection, Inc.
President

P.s. I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.
