RE: UBR R.A.M. APPLICATIONS, INC. DOCUMENT # P00000065677

To Whom it May Concern,,

I am sending this letter as attestation relative to the reason my corporation's UBR was not filed in a timely matter.

On March 15, 2001, I was the victim of a motor vehicle accident. The individual who hit me was cited. This accident resulted in significant back injuries and visual disturbances in my left eye (documented). I am under the care of three (3) physicians and until end May 2001, was unable to drive and my activities of daily living were quite compromised. Enclosed please find a copy of my police report.

Due to this situation, many things in my life acquiesced. My businesses came to a halt as my abilities to function, both intellectually and physically were impaired.

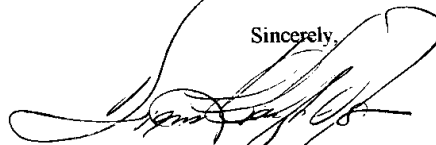

On July 12, 2001 (on my way to a physician appointment) I was, again the victim of yet another motor vehicle accident. Again, the individual who hit me was cited. This second accident set back my progress from the first accident on March 15, 2001.

It is not October, thankfully, I am driving again and on the road to healing. I must put all aspects of my life back in order -- my businesses are within the foremost

During all of this my State of Florida and Local Tax /Corporate filings fell into arrears. At the advice of one of your professional counselors, I am enclosing this letter, the proper fees, and my UBR filling:

I respectfully ask that the corporation -- R.A.M. Appellations, Inc.. be reinstated as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Diana L. Clough-Olson
