To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of a 2001 Uniform Business Report Package. When I brought this package to my accountant she informed me that I had filed this report in February when I received the original mailing. In reviewing my records, the check I wrote to pay the application fee has never cleared the bank. Now, as we read this filing package, I have been assessed an additional $400 for the delay, which must have been caused by the U.S. Postal System.

I have tried to be responsible for all my financial and legal reporting requirements, and have responded on a timely basis to all related correspondence. Based on these circumstances, I would appreciate receiving leniency on the final assessment of this $400 penalty. I have enclosed and updated report and the necessary $150 filing fee, as done with the original mailing in January.

Thank you for your consideration. I can be reached at the number above if you should have further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Sami Kiperman
President
