Dear Ms. Ashton:

Per our phone conversation last week, the following is a brief explanation of how the confusion regarding the filing fee developed. The 2001 Uniform Business Report for Villaverde Development Corp. (formerly known as ARK Enterprises, Inc.) was submitted months ago with a check for $150, which was cashed at that time. In the UBR the new name was used. The UBR was then sent back to me stating that I either file a UBR using the old name or submit a name change application. I had already sent the amendment application, with its fee, but I guess the mail crossed at some point in time. Then I sent in another UBR using the new name, after communicating with Doug Spittler from the Amendment Department and finding out that the name change was in the process of being filed. Since then I have received the certificate of name change.

I received a handwritten note that said "please send in fee" which was stuck on the attached UBR (you can see it under your name and address), and I do not know if that was from Doug or someone else. That is when I called you. The $150 fee was sent along with the original application.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 305-596-7402. Thank you.

Tara Villaverde
