RE: Annual Report for Safety Consultant Services
#65-1029776

I am writing on behalf of my client, Aldo Miranda, president of Safety Consultant Services. He came to me after receiving the notice of the annual report to be due by September 12, 2001.

This was the result of my meeting with him. I explained to him that he needed to file the report in January and no later than May to meet the annual reporting requirements. At this time the fee was $150.00. After that the fee would increase. He explained to me that this was his first year as an S-Corp and he was unaware of the filing requirements. He also indicated to me that he never received the business report filing in January. His mother-in-law was extremely ill for the last part of 2000 and passed away at the end of December and he was in the process of assisting family members and moving to a new home. It is possible that the report was lost. He e-mailed the Florida Dept of State which advised him to write this letter and send the fee of $150.00.

We are enclosing this letter along with the fee and report, subject to your evaluation of his personal case.

Thanking you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Carrol A. Velez, CPA
