ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENT AND INDEMNIFICATION

These Articles may be amended, provided every Amendment is approved by a majority of the Board of Directors and Stockholders.

The Corporation shall indemnify as Directors or officers, or subscribers, or who, at the request of the Board of Directors or Stockholders of the corporation in which the Corporation at such time may own shares of stock or of which it was or may be a creditor, and their respective heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, against any and all expenses, including amounts paid in settlement (before or after suit is commenced), actually and necessarily incurred by such persons in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, action, suit or proceeding in which they, or any of them, by reason of being or having been Directors or officers of the Corporation, or of such other Corporation, except in relation to matters as to which any such Directors or officers shall be adjudged in any action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for his own gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of duty. Such indemnification shall be in addition to any other rights, to which the indemnification may be entitled under any law or bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or otherwise.

The private property of the Stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of the corporate debts in any extent whatever. The Corporation shall have a first lien on the shares of its members, and upon the dividends due them for any indebtedness to the Corporation for such members of the Corporation.

ARTICLE XII ADDITIONAL POWERS

The Corporation shall have the further right and power to from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of this Corporation (other than the stock book) or any of them shall be open to inspection of stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account book or document of this Corporation, except as conferred by Statute, unless authorized by a resolution of the stockholders or Board of Directors.

The Corporation may in its bylaws confer powers upon its Board of Directors or officers, in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers authorized and expressly conferred by statute.

Both Stockholders and Directors shall have power, if the bylaws so provide, to hold their respective meetings, and to have one or more offices within or without the State of Florida, at such places as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by Statute, and all rights conferred upon Stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
