RE: Alltech Electronic Components, Inc.
~~UBR - Reinstatement~~

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing in connection with the above captioned Corporation and the current delinquent status of the Corporations UBR filing. Pursuant to my conversation this morning with an administrative person in your office, I have prepared a Corporate Reinstatement form and enclose $450.00 to process said form. ~~With regard to any penalty assessment, we respectfully request~~ that the State consider the circumstances as contained herein:

The corporate stockholder responsible for filing the UBR reports has been incapacitated since February 2001. This condition has caused tax filings and well as the UBR reports to be filed late. The responsible parties condition is the direct reason for the late filing and, in no way, is the failure to file an indication of willful neglect.

Based on the aforementioned explanation, we respectfully request that you accept the $450.00 payment and process the return accordingly.

Please contact the undersigned directly if you should have any questions.

Sincerely,

Joseph G. Mayo

RE: Alltech Electronic Components Corporation
LTR No: P00000071650

Dear Ms. Ashton:

Thank you for taking some time today to discuss the above - captioned entity and your letter of January 20, 2004 (copy enclosed). We respectfully request that the State consider the forgoing facts as sufficient cause to abate the reinstatement fee of $600.00 outlined in your letter.

Please note that Alltech's shareholders maintain their principal residence as the mailing address for the Corporation. In November 2001, the principals moved to 3488 Cedar Crest Loop, Spring Hill, from Clearwater. The shareholders experiences significant problems with U.S. mail delivery as the direct result of a "transfer" of their residence to their personal ownership. This had to do with an intermediary status of ownership by a third-party who assisted in the purchase for the benefit of the shareholders. There is no doubt that there exists the possibility that mail sent by the State may have gone awry. In no case was it the intention of the shareholders to exhibit willful neglect for the States requirements.

In anticipation of the State granting the Shareholders the courtesy of abatement, enclosed please find a check for $150.00 to complete their financial requirement for reinstatement. Also, please find enclosed the completed reinstatement form.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Joseph G. Mayo
