To Whom it may concern,

I was recently out of town on a medical emergency with two family members. I had been gone for quite a few months. As a result, I only learned of this report at the end of August. I had never received the mail informing me of this form. I was told to send a letter explaining why we had not filed as of yet and to send the $150.00 fee. Thank you for your consideration. If at all possible, please direct any further correspondence to our new address as stated above.
