I recieved your notice for payment of 550.00 and was not sure why the fee was so high. I called the Department and was told I had been sent a previous bill for 150.00 in the past months. I looked through all our files and found no bill. We payed all the fees and costs to get incorporated last year and I thought we were up to date. We moved in the interim of starting the business and perhaps it could have gotten lost in the mail. We have always payed our bills in a timely manner and I was told we could pay the original 150.00 and you could waive the late fee. We are a small family business with just myself and my husband and it would be a hardship to come up with 550.00 at this time.

Thank you for your consideration.
