accessories; to engage in activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient for the accomplishment of that purpose, or which are incidental thereto or connected therewith; and to transact any or all other lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Act, including qualifying for certain tax or retirement advantages available to general corporations. The corporation shall have all the powers specified in Section 607.0302 of the Act.

ARTICLE 4. STOCK

The corporation shall have authority to issue 7,500 shares of common stock with a par value of $1.00 per share. The corporation shall not have the authority to issue shares in series.

ARTICLE 5. PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS

5.1 Statement of Preemptive Rights. After the subscription shares have been issued, each holder of shares in the corporation shall have the first right to purchase shares (and securities convertible to shares) of the corporation that may from time to time be issued (whether or not presently authorized), including shares from the treasury of the corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding exclusive of treasury shares. This right shall be deemed waived by any Shareholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares preempted within thirty (30) days of receipt of a
