3.02 Preemptive Rights of Shareholders. The Corporation elects to have preemptive rights. The shareholders of the Corporation shall have a preemptive right to purchase, at equitable prices, terms, and conditions fixed by the Board of Directors, the shares of capital stock of the Corporation or securities convertible into or carrying options or warrants to purchase such shares, as may be issued from time to time, after the issuance of the first ONE HUNDRED (100) shares, including shares presently or subsequently authorized, shares held in the treasury of the Corporation, and shares issued for services of the property. Shares issued to employees of the Corporation under a plan approved by the holders of 51% of the issued and outstanding voting shares of the Corporation shall not be subject to preemptive rights.

3.03 Cumulative Voting. All shareholders are entitled to cumulate their votes for directors. At each election for directors, every shareholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares held by the shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the shareholder has the right to vote, or to cumulate such votes by giving one candidate as many votes as there are directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held by the shareholder, or by distributing the votes on the same principle among any number of candidates.

In the event that any of the said stock is not purchased by the Corporation during such period, it shall be offered to the remaining shareholders of the same class of stock in the same proportion as their respective stock interests in said class of stock, for a like price and for a similar period of time. Should any of the remaining shareholders decline to purchase his or her proportionate share of the stock during that period, that stock shall be offered to the then remaining shareholders for a like price and for a similar period of time. In the event that any of said stock is not purchased by the Corporation or the shareholders, the remaining stock may then be sold by the shareholder without restriction. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment of this Section of these Articles of Incorporation, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. The affirmative vote of the holders of 51% of the issued and outstanding voting shares of the Corporation shall be required to amend this Section of these Articles of Incorporation.

5.02 Names and Addresses of Initial Directors. The names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial Board of Directors of the Corporation until the first annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified, are:

5.03 Transactions with Directors. Any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and a director, or between the Corporation and any firm, organization or Corporation of which a director is a member, employee, shareholder, director, or officer, or in which the director has an interest, shall be valid for all purposes, if the fact of such interest was disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and if the Board of Directors authorizes or ratifies the contract or transaction or if the contract or transaction was disclosed to and ratified by the shareholders, or if the contract or transaction is fair to the Corporation. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction that would otherwise be valid under applicable law.

5.04 Indemnification. The Corporation, acting through its Board of Directors, shall have the authority to indemnify or advance expenses to any director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, when the said director, officer, employee, or agent has incurred expenses or liabilities (including attorney's fees), which, in the absolute discretion of the Board of Directors, are considered to have been incurred on behalf of the Corporation. The rights set forth in this Section shall be in addition to any rights for indemnification provided by applicable law.

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against and incurred by that person in any such capacity or arising out of that person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation could indemnify that person against such liability under the provisions of this Section.

5.05 Removal of Directors. One or more of the directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of the majority of the shares then entitled to vote for the election of directors. No director may be removed if the votes cast against the director's removal would be sufficient to elect the director if cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors. A director shall be entitled to receive notice of, and a hearing with respect to, his or her removal for cause.

ARTICLE VI

Purposes, Foreign Business, and Duration

6.01 Purposes. The purpose(s) for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in the business of any lawful purpose, and to do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of the foregoing purposes, and to do all things incidental to them or connected with them that are not forbidden by law or by these Articles of Incorporation.

6.02 Conducting Business in Other Jurisdictions. The Corporation may conduct business and otherwise carry out its purposes and exercise its powers in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, to the full extent permitted by the laws of the state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or by the foreign country; and it may limit its purpose or purposes in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or foreign country.

6.03 Period of Duration. The period of duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE VII

Amendment and Fundamental Changes.

7.01 Amendment. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended only by the written consent or affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding voting shares, except that any section of these Articles of Incorporation that provide for a greater vote of the shareholders may be amended only upon the written consent or affirmative vote of the shareholders provided for in that section.

7.02 Fundamental Changes. The affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of 67% percent of the issued and outstanding voting shares of the Corporation shall be necessary for the following corporate acts:

- (a) The adoption by the Corporation of a plan of merger, consolidation, or share exchange.
- (b) The sale, lease, exchange, or transfer by the Corporation of all or substantially all of its property or assets other than in the regular course of business.

(c) The voluntary dissolution of the Corporation by its Board of Directors and shareholders.

7.03 By-Laws. The initial By-Laws shall be adopted by the Board of Directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws or to adopt new By-laws shall be vested in the shareholders and the Board of Directors, except that the shareholders in amending or repealing a particular by-law may provide that the Board of Directors may not amend or repeal that by-law. The By-Laws may contain any provision for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Corporation that is not inconsistent with the law or these Articles of Incorporation.
