To whom it may concern:

I have made several requests for a Uniform Business Report on your messaging system.

The first request was on April 12th where I was informed by a representative to leave a message with my information. I left another message on April 23rd and on May 7th was told again that I should leave a message. It was not until June 4th that I was instructed that I could download a form off the internet by a Suzanne at your office. Given the circumstance, please waive the late fee.

Thank you,

Lisa Moyers
