The power to adopt initial by-laws corresponds to the incorporators, or to the first Board of Directors. The power to amend the initial by-laws corresponds to the incorporators, or to the first Board of Directors, but only the shareholders may adopt emergency by-laws.

This corporation may give oral notice in any case where notice to shareholders, directors or officers is required or convenient, but notice to this corporation shall always be in writing, in the manner set forth in Section 607.0141 of the Florida Statutes as presently enacted.

ARTICLE XI

Procedure in Case of Deadlock

In case of deadlock in any decision to be made by the Board of Directors and/or the shareholders, no director or shareholder shall seek dissolution of the corporation, but, instead, the dispute shall be submitted for decision to a panel of three persons who are either attorneys or certified public accountants, authorized to practice in Florida; two of such persons shall be selected, one each, by the parties in deadlock; the third shall be chosen by the two persons selected by the parties in deadlock. If any party refuses to appoint the attorney or certified public accountant then, any party may petition the Dade County Bar Association and/or the Dade County C.P.A. Association to nominate, in the stead of the non-nominating party, an attorney or attorneys or certified public accountants, and the attorneys or certified public accountants so nominated shall be considered as nominated by the party or parties that have refused or neglected to nominate pursuant to this Article.

The decision of this panel shall be binding on the corporation, its directors, officers, and shareholders and shall be considered the act of the board of directors and/or the shareholders. The Corporation shall bear the cost incurred in the selection and functioning of the panel and shall save its members harmless and always indemnified from any liabilities incurred as a consequence of the performance of their duties, including those arising out of negligence.
