To Whom It May Concern:

This morning, I called into the (850) 488-9000 help line & explained to the woman helping me that as a new and one person corporation, maybe I had missed my first notification, but after researching my tax and accounting files, neither my CPA or myself has a notification from January.

I did, however, take this form, review it & bring it to my CPA who then informed me that I should have received the original notification earlier. Unfortunately, this is just being taken care of today vs. yesterday due to the activities on the 11th & my having relatives (all safe) in NY, but I am bringing this to the post office to be dated for mailing by today. She relayed that she thought the department would accept receiving my letter & check a day or two late.

I do ask that as a small company, that you understand my situation & accept my commitment that come January 2002, I will not only look for, but take immediate action on the UBR requirements.

Thank you for your consideration & I look forward to your response.

Respectfully,

Mary Brady
