Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to apologize first and foremost for not filing my company's UBR in a timely fashion. I was unable to file due to my being out of the state on a family affair that appeared suddenly. I left this matter in the hands of my account and she failed to process this paperwork and fee. This is the first year that I have been in business and was unaware that such a severe penalty was attached to not filing this document on time. I would ask in all my humility to be sparred this penalty for filing late. I understand that you have rules that must be followed and ignorance is no excuse, but there were other extenuating circumstances involved here and I truly would appreciate your generosity concerning this matter. Our company and I are involved here locally in the Chamber of Commerce and we feel that small businesses are the lifeblood of our economy and would ask, in fact beg that you do not attach the $400.00 late fee. I have enclosed a check for the normal $150.00 fee, not to be presumptuous, but rather to hope that you will in fact have mercy on us. If you could contact me with your decision via phone or for further explanation on this matter I can be reached at 561-719-7115 or 561-965-5578.

T. C. Man

Sincerely,

George Marut Chairman/CEO
