Re: Asahi International Inc.
P00000082982

Dear Sirs;

The following are copies, in chronological order (bottom to top), of all correspondence related to their unfortunate set of events.

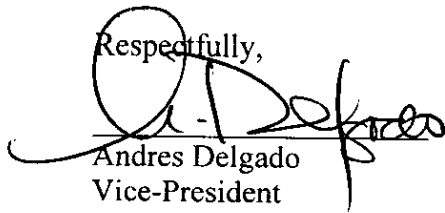

In summary, our efforts to pay the required fees have met with; lost mail, changes in Corporate name, crossing of reporting years, etc, so as to create confusion.

Would you be so kind as to read the attached correspondence, make the necessary adjustments, cash our check and reinstate the Company?

We would be so grateful if someone would take the time needed to see what has happened.

Thanking you in advance for your most needed attention.

Respectfully,

Andres Delgado
Vice-President
Asahi International, Inc.

Dear Sirs:

On April 17, 2001 we mailed you the 2001 Uniform Business Report with a check for $150.00 (Copies Enclosed).

With this letter we are mailing you a new check for the amount of ($150.00).

We do not understand what happened to our original check. We believe the problem may have been caused by our recent name change.

Respectfully,

Andres Delgado
Vice-President

Dear Sirs:

On April 17, 2001 our company mailed you the 2001 Uniform Business Report with a check in the amount of $150.00 (Copies Enclosed). My accountant notified me after several months that the check never cleared.

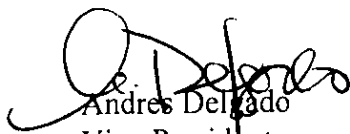

We sent you a new check in the amount of $150.00 on, October 26, 2001, along with an attached copy of the forms and check we had already sent in April (Copies Enclosed).

We have recently been in contact with your department. Now we are told that you have not received the documents we sent in October. We were advised to send in a new letter with the attachments explaining what happened, and as a result we would not be penalized.

With this letter we are sending you all copies of documents that we have sent you since April, including copies of both checks we had previously sent, and a new check in the amount of $150.00.

We do not understand what happened to our original and second check. We believe the problem may have been caused by our recent name change.

Respectfully,

Andres Delgado
Vice-President
Asahi International, Inc.
