Florida Dept of State
Division of Corporations
Uniform Business Report Filings
P.O. Box 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

To whom it may concern,

Our corporation name was filed and awarded to us back in September of 2000.

We actually closed on our business October of 2000 but at that time went under a construction process that affected our opening date which was to have been in December 2000.

Because of construction problems we did not actually open our business until February 28th 2001.

During the time we were unable to open, much of our mail was either sent back to senders, misplaced by the Post Office and we did not receive a lot of pertinent mail, including of course this letter from the Division of Corporations.

We contacted the division as soon as we received this second notice which I brought to our accountant, and I spoke to a gentleman, Robert M., who told us to mail a letter (as like this one) and to send the normal fee which is $150.00 instead of the $550.00.

Included in this letter will be the $150.00 and information filled out on the sheet that you sent us.

Please let us know of any further information you might require.

Thank you,

Valerie A. Utter
