Re: The Swiss Creole Connection

Dear Service Representative,

Enclosed is a copy of the 2002 Uniform Business Report and a check for $150. We are aware that this is late and are asking for relief from the penalty due to difficult circumstances. In April of 2002 Paul Sprenger the president and husband to the secretary Lynette Despanza-Sprenger notified his wife that he wanted a divorce. He had been out of the country in Switzerland prior to this and she had been holding all paper work for him to sign when he returned to the U.S. He didn't return until June 18, 2002 and that was to sign the divorce papers. Lynette was obviously distraught during this period and the last thing she was thinking about was filing any paperwork. It wasn't until she came to my office today that we discovered the oversight. Attached is a copy of the divorce decree proving this string of events. We are asking that the penalty be waived due to this very difficult string of events. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

W.G. Spoor
