~~I'd like to take this opportunity to justify the delay for filing this document.~~
I have filed a change for our mailing address in January of this year. I've been receiving all correspondence from the IRS, in our new mailing address, at:

432 Worthington Dr.
Winter Park, FL 32789

I called the Division of Corporations in April, since we still hadn't received the UBR form at that time, and requested a blank form through an answering machine. I tried to make the payment online, but since I'd never received the original form, we didn't have the access code requested for this form of payment. The due date was getting to it's deadline, and we still hadn't received the blank form requested, so we called in one more time, and this time, I spoke with someone who was kind enough to take our information, and explain to us that we couldn't make the payment by phone either. Also, I was told to write a letter, explaining the situation, so I could request the penalties to be waived, since I was ready to make the payment before the due date, and I never received the original form.

~~We look forward to hearing from you regarding this matter.~~
Thank you for your attention,

Sincerely,

Claudia Pandolfi
President
