SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Article I

The name of the Corporation is Kenneth G. Protonentis, P.A. and its duration shall be perpetual.

Article II

The Corporation is organized pursuant to the provisions of Section 607.0101 et seq. of The Florida Business Corporation Act of 1990, as amended (the "Business Corporation Act") and Section 621.01 et seq. of the Professional Services Corporation Act, as amended (the "Professional Corporation Act").

Article III

The Corporation is a Professional Services Corporation for profit and is organized for the purpose of providing professional legal services pursuant to Section 621.06 of the Professional Corporation Act and investing its funds as permitted by Section 621.08 of the Professional Corporation Act.

Article IV

The aggregate number of shares that the Corporation shall have the authority to issue and the par value of each of these shares are one million (1,000,000) shares of Common Stock with no par value.

Article V

At all times, each holder of Common Stock of this Corporation shall be entitled to one vote for each share of such stock standing in the holder's name on the books of the Corporation. This Corporation shall not have cumulative voting.

Article VI

No shareholder of the Corporation shall have any preemptive or other first right to acquire any treasury shares or any additional issue of shares of stock or other securities of the Corporation, either presently authorized or to be authorized. This Article VI shall not prohibit the granting of any such right to any shareholder pursuant to any contract or other agreement.

Article VII

Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors of this Corporation may be filled by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors then in office. Any such directorship not so filled by the Board of Directors shall be filled by election at the next annual meeting of the Shareholders or at a special meeting of the Shareholders called for that purpose.

Articles of Incorporation
Kenneth G. Protonentis, P.A.

Article VIII

This Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by Section 607.0850 of the Business Corporation Act and Section 621.07 of the Professional Corporation Act any person who is made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise (including an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of this Corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation or a fiduciary within the meaning of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 with respect to any employee benefit plan of this Corporation, or serves or served at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer, or as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The right to and amount of indemnification shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporation Act and Professional Corporation Act in effect at the time of the determination.

Article IX

Any contract or other transaction or determination between the Corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the Corporation and another party in which one or more of its directors are interested, shall be valid notwithstanding the presence or participation of such director or directors in a meeting of the Board of Directors which acts upon or in reference to such contract, transaction or determination, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and it shall authorize or approve such contract by a vote of the majority of the disinterested directors present and entitled to vote. Such interested director or directors may be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at any such meeting, but shall not be entitled to a vote on such contract, transaction or determination, and shall not be counted among the directors present for purposes of determining the number of directors constituting the majority necessary to carry such vote. If not authorized or approved by a majority of the disinterested directors as provided above, such contract, transaction or determination shall nevertheless be valid if ratified or approved by a vote of the Shareholders. Such interested director or directors shall not be disqualified from voting as Shareholders for ratification or approval of such contract, transaction or determination which should otherwise be valid under applicable law.

Article X

The Corporation shall have the right to purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares to the extent of the aggregate of unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus available thereof and unreserved and unrestricted capital surplus available therefor.
