ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
RICHARD P. CONDON, LAW OFFICE, P.A.
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned, who is duly licensed to practice law in the State of Florida, desiring to form a professional corporation in accordance with Chapters 607 and 621 of the Florida Statutes, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE ONE NAME

The name of the corporation shall be RICHARD P. CONDON, LAW OFFICE, P.A.

ARTICLE TWO REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The location and address of the Corporation's initial registered office in Florida is 10809 North 56th Street, Temple Terrace, Florida 33617-3646 in Hillsborough County. The initial registered agent at the registered office is RICHARD P. CONDON. Said Richard P. Condon is a member in good standing of The Florida Bar; his Bar number is 126676. The principal address is the same as the registered office.

ARTICLE THREE PURPOSE

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized shall be to engage in the practice of law within the State of Florida, and to take all actions that are necessary or proper in connection with that practice.

ARTICLE FOUR DURATION

The term of the existence of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE FIVE PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

The corporation may not render professional services except through its members, officers, employees, and agents who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional services within this state; provided, however, this provision shall not be interpreted to include in the term "employee," as used herein, clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, and other assistants who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be rendering professional services to the public for which a license or other legal authorization is required. Nothing contained herein shall be interpreted to require that the right of an individual to be a shareholder of the corporation depend upon the present or future existence of an employment relationship between him or her and such corporation or his or her present or future active participation in any capacity in the production of the income of such corporation or in the performance of the services rendered by the corporation.

If any member, officer, shareholder, agent, or employee of the Corporation who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services within this state or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon that person's continued rendering of such professional services, that person shall sever all employment with, and financial interests in, such corporation forthwith.

ARTICLE SIX INCORPORATOR

The name and address of the incorporator is Richard P. Condon, Apartment B, 5613 East 127th Avenue, Tampa, Florida 33617. Said Richard P. Condon is a member in good standing of The Florida Bar; his Bar number is 126676.

ARTICLE SEVEN DIRECTORS

The business of the Corporation shall be managed by the shareholder(s) rather than by a Board of Directors.

ARTICLE EIGHT CAPITAL STOCK

The number of shares of stock that the Corporation is authorized to have outstanding is one thousand (1,000), of which all shall be common shares with par value of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

ARTICLE NINE STATED CAPITAL

The amount of capital with which the Corporation shall begin business is Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00).

ARTICLE TEN LIMIT ON SALE OF STOCK

The Corporation may issue its capital stock to no one other than a professional corporation, a professional limited liability company, or an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services as those for which the Corporation was incorporated. No shareholder of the Corporation may enter into a voting trust agreement or any other type agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise the voting power of any or all of that person's stock. Stock may be transferred only by the Corporation or to the Corporation by contract properly entered into the Corporation's records.

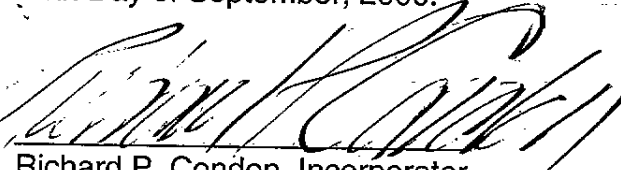

ARTICLE ELEVEN LIABILITY OF OFFICERS

Nothing in these Articles shall be interpreted to abolish, repeal, modify, restrict, or limit the professional relationship and liabilities between the person furnishing the professional services and the person receiving such professional service or the standards for professional conduct. Provided however, any officer, agent, member, manager, or employee of the Corporation shall be personally liable and accountable only for negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by that person, or by any person under that person's direct supervision and control, while rendering professional service on behalf of the corporation or limited liability company to the person for whom such professional services were being rendered; and provided further that the personal liability of shareholders of the Corporation in their capacity as shareholders or members of the Corporation shall be no greater in any aspect than that of a shareholder-employee of a corporation organized under chapter 607. The Corporation shall be liable up to the full value of its property for any negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by any of its officers, agents, members, managers, or employees while they are engaged on behalf of the corporation or limited liability company in the rendering of professional services.

ARTICLE TWELVE AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES

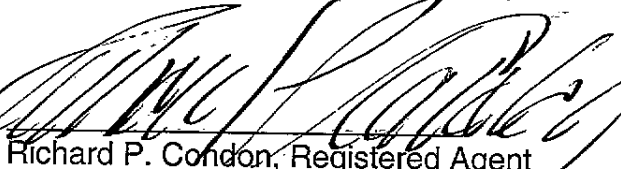

The Corporation reserves the right to amend these Articles of Incorporation at any time in a manner now or subsequently permitted by statute.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal, acknowledged and filed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation under the laws of the State of Florida, this Fifth Day of September, 2000.

Richard P. Condon, Incorporator

ACCEPTANCE OF REGISTERED AGENT DESIGNATED IN ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Having been named as registered agent and to accept service of process for the above-named corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I hereby accept the appointment and agree to comply with the provisions of all statutes relating to the proper and complete performance of my duties.
