Dear Ms. Bailey:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation this morning in regards to the above reference corporation, enclosed please find a money order in the amount of $ 103.75 to cover the balance of the electronic filing fees.

As we having discussing on September 11, 2001, we mailed a check along with the Uniform Business Report 2001; the due date was September 12, 2001. Later that week we reviewed our records and found out that our corporation checking account was closed, thereafter we decided to file the Business Report 2001 online on September 18, 2001 on that date the system only allow me to pay $ 66.25, which was paid at that time.

60 days notice of intent to the dissolve the corporation. Please be advised that we never received that notice, for which we respectfully request to please reconsider our petition in reopening our corporation, and accept the money order in the amount of $ 103.75 to cover the balance due on our corporation.
