RE: Annual Report

To Whom It May Concern:

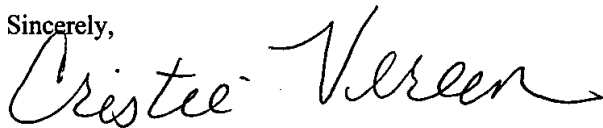

My company, Cristie Vereen, Inc., was incorporated on September 8, 2000. I filed my annual report in a timely manner (February 26, 2001, Check #176). However, it has recently come my attention that the Division of Corporations never received my completed report and payment. I verified this information in two ways. First, I received a second notice from the Division of Corporations (forwarded to me by my CPA), and secondly, in completing my bank reconciliation for the month ended August 31, 2001, the check has not yet cleared the bank.

I am asking that I not be penalized for something that was out of my control – the report being lost in the mail.

Attached is another completed Annual Report for the year 2001 and my payment of $150.00. Please remove the penalty from my corporation.

Thank you for your consideration and I await your decision.

Sincerely,

Cristie Vereen
