Dear Richard,

I Frederick E. Pressley do hereby submit this letter as my resignation from the corporation known as Liners and Coatings Unlimited, Inc., on the above date. I do hereby relinquish all shares of stocks and the office of Secretary, of which I presently hold. It is my hope that it is accepted in good faith and no hard feelings are felt or held by anyone.

I hope that if you continue this venture that it will fulfill all your dreams and expectations. If at anytime your corporation is financially stable and can see fit, it is my hope that all monies that I have distribute while a member of the above mention corporation be return to me in full. In the event of my death it is my hope that these monies be distribute equally between my two sons, Jonathan K. Pressley and Kenny W. Pressley. Once again good luck and I hope it works for you.

Your Friend,
Frederick E. Pressley
