Division of Corporations
P.O. Box 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

August 1, 2003

Dear Division of Corporations:

I am writing with regard to the timely filing of the Uniform Business Report (UBR) for Thunder Irrigation, Inc. The Company relocated with the appropriate change of address being filed with the US Postal Service. However, much time went by before the Company received any mail. The appropriate calls were made to the US Postal Service inquiring as to the receipt of mail. However, it was not until recently that a significant bundle of mail was delivered by the Postal Service. Included with the mail was the UBR that was to be filed by May 1, 2003.

The Company recognizes that it should have also filed a change of address with the Division of Corporations, but mistakenly neglected to do so. The Company would like to request that the Division of Corporations waive the $400 late fee for the 2003 filing. The UBR has been enclosed and it can be clearly noted that the only change on the UBR is the change of address.

The Company has included a check for $150.00 and would like this to be considered payment for the 2003 UBR filing.

Best regards,

Chad Summerville, President
Thunder Irrigation
