Re: Uniform Business Report for RDT Fitness, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I was recently forwarded a 2001 Uniform Business Report for RDT Fitness, Inc. ("RDT") stating that the fee to remain in good standing was $550.00. Upon inquiry with a representative at the Division of Corporations, I explained that I had not received any prior notice that my corporate filing was due. The representative suggested I fill out the enclosed form with a check for $150.00 (plus $8.75 to receive a certificate of good standing) with my written explanation as to why I had not completed a prior filing.

RDT was first incorporated in September 27, 2000, and I did not realize, not having received any notice, that the corporate filing was due prior to September, 2001. At this point I respectfully request that the extra filing penalty be waived, and the enclosed check be applied toward maintaining the good status of RDT.

Thank you for your consideration. Please feel free to contact me at the above-listed address if you require any further information.

Sincerely,

 Robyn DiTocco, President
